IDENTIFIER tracked the leaders inside for six furlongs, moved out advancing to contention under a drive past the midway point of the far turn, collared EKHTIBAAR from outside at the top of the stretch, had the rider briefly fumble with the whip while switching right-handed, and prevailed even as the rider put the whip away through the closing stages. EKHTIBAAR got off to a flat-footed start and was last to begin, looped the field five wide intent on getting the lead around the first turn, gained command before completing a quarter-mile and moved inside setting a brisk pace, shook off ARMISTICE DAY late on the far turn, was set upon by IDENTIFIER at the top of the stretch, fought gamely on the rail but was edged to the finish. ARMISTICE DAY crept closer three wide heading into the far turn, loomed menacingly outside EKHTIBAAR after six furlongs, could not sustain the bid and weakened through the drive. VETTORI KIN (BRZ) chased outside the pacesetter up the backstretch, moved inside on the far turn and faltered after six furlongs. BASHA raced four wide throughout, and dropped far back approaching the stretch.
