Footnotes

GENERAL MATHIS broke in bumping KARAMOJO into STRONG HEADED, lagged well back for six furlongs, fanned to the far outside at the top of the stretch, kicked in well and was up outside TRACEABILITY and KARAMOJO while brushed near the wire by the latter. TRACEABILITY bumped a few times with VIKING PLUNDER shortly after the start, advanced inside off the far turn, bid along the rail and reached the lead inside REINOANIMAUX entering the final furlong, briefly went clear, but could not hold on and saved second. KARAMOJO was bumped between horses at the start, settled in the middle of the field early inside, moved out four wide for the drive, bid between horses in deep stretch, drifted out under left-hand pressure brushing GENERAL MATHIS and just missed. GUACO began moving four then five wide late on the turn, rallied to contention with aim in the five-path through the furlong grounds, but was outkicked. VIKING PLUNDER was pinballed shortly after the start and checked sharply between TRACEABILITY and STRONG HEADED with the rider briefly losing the left iron, advanced into traffic through upper stretch on the rail, and finished with good courage. REINOANIMAUX set the pace inside, stayed on to upper stretch and weakened. OXBURGER tucked in behind the leaders for six furlongs, lacked room and steadied behind REINOANIMAUX and CALL BROS in upper stretch, and gave way. CALL BROS raced three wide in striking range to the stretch, had aim but faded approaching the eighth-pole. STRONG HEADED was bumped by KARAMOJO at the start, bumped several times with VIKING PLUNDER and steadied shortly after, raced three wide on the turns, and could not gain. CHARLIECANDO stayed in range three wide for six furlongs, and tired. KITTEN'S CLOWN was never prominent. NATHAN'S SECRET prompted the early pace outside REINOANIMAUX, turned up the pressure after a half-mile, but faltered soon after completing six furlongs.
